

Nonfiction Assessment Record

Book Title: Designed for Living

Student _____ Date _____

*Read pages 4 and 5 silently.
What are three things most mammals have in common?*

Did the student specify three different traits?

How are marsupials different from other mammals?

Was the student able to explain the main difference?

*Read pages 6 through 11 silently.
How are smell, sight, and hearing important to mammals?*

Was the student able to give one response
for each of these senses?

*Read page 12 silently.
What is the main difference between herbivores and carnivores?*

Did the student understand that one eats plants while the other eats animals?

*Read page 13 silently.
Can you tell me two ways mammals protect themselves?*

Did the student state two different ways?

What are three things you have learned about mammals from reading this book?

Did the student specify three facts from the book?

KWL Chart

Name _____ Date _____

Fill in the KWL chart before, during, and after you read Designed for Living.

What I Know About Mammals	What I Want to Know About Mammals	What I Learned About Mammals

